Dear Jack;

It will be ten months, the 13th, that we have been going together. Honest honey, it doesn't seem any longer than three months. Oh, we've had our argues but then, we've had our happy times, and we've been very lucky to have been able to be married and live, love, and enjoy life more than ever. I've been all these years to follow. I love you more, more than words ever could express. You're the best, sweetest, dearest, darlingest little pest, and I know you'll be a good wife for me. I'm so glad that time comes so we can be married and be able to wait, till we have the money for a little home of our own. Three weeks. I would've been so lonesome if I hadn't had you to look forward to. There's only one thing I don't like about you, and that's your habit of saying "Dorine" instead of "Dolly". Your little

CLASS OF 1954

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of the Class of '54, being of unsound bodies and no minds whatsoever, do hereby will and bequeath to the following under the powers vested in us, all our fond memories and questionable possessions. After due consideration regarding the disposal of our fortunes we, the Seniors, shall apportion our common estate thus:

To Mr. Sabin we leave a brand new group of shining senior faces at the front of the auditorium for Friday morning inspiration.

To Mr. Francis we leave a helicopter to hop the hills of Honeoye.

To Mr. Stalker we leave a record of "Dragnet" and a giant, economy size bottle of "Nodoze" for his breakfast club.

To Miss Coulton we leave an abundant supply of State Scholarship Application Blanks for 1955.

To Miss Martens we leave one day free from tardiness and tantrums.

To Miss Stewart we leave a chartreuse Jaguar.

To Mrs. Towers and to Mr. Meyer who have guided us through the daze of class social life, we leave all the extra tickets, decorations from dances, and other accumulated debris from our gay night life. Sincerely though, many, many thanks.

To Mr. Iman we leave a short pamphlet entitled, "Even a Child Can Repair a Car," and for next year's economics class 30 copies of "How to Live within Your Income in 10 Easy Lessons."

To Mrs. Ringwood we leave a dozen self-measuring measuring cups and a yard of ready-made button holes for her new eighth-graders.

To Mr. Miller we leave a notebook in which to inscribe his assorted stories, and upon request, the name of a publishing company.

To Mr. Zornow we leave three pages of perennial "ads" to fill the empty spaces in our publications.

To all the unmarried teachers still hoping, we leave tall, dark, handsome MEN.

To Mr. Cleland we leave one very sharp pen-knife and a box of new pencils.

To Mrs. Ebray we bequeath an extra set of keys. (Keys, did you say?)

To Mr. Taylor we leave a brand new Tinker-Toy set for bigger and better examples of problems in solid geometry.

To Mrs. Fraser we leave a new set of seniors who not only read poetry easily, but write it, too.

To Mr. Rahtjen we leave a copy of Bennett Cerf's book, Anything for a Laugh (not that we mean to be facetious but, Try and Stop Me!)

To Mr. Lyders we bequeath a set of rubber-tipped gavels and an album of the latest jazz records.

To Mr. Remington we leave one fool-proof public address system for the auditorium, and one folding stairway for the stars direct from Room 38 to the stage.

To Miss Levin we bequeath one pair of adjustable rubbers for those rare days when the "sidewalks are dry and the driveways are wet."

To "O'B" we leave new football uniforms for next year's champions.

To Miss Sullivan we bequeath one round trip ticket to Syracuse and a large can of Gefulte fish.

From Mr. Kehrig we take his tangent so he can't go off on it, and we leave him a 10% discount on all baby furniture.

For Mrs. Martin we leave a house in town. It's peaceful here.

To Mr. Carroll we leave a carton of Chesterfields, a bottle of grape juice, and chickens that don't hatch in exam week.

To Miss Donoghue we leave a new crop of seniors for Fall mowing.

To the Junior Class we leave all the worry and expensive honor of being Seniors.

To the Sophomore Class we leave all the dignity of being Juniors. "You're arriving, kid!"

To the Freshmen we leave plane geometry, world history, and biology, the three evils of the 10th grade.

To the present Eighth Graders we leave the hope of making "It."

To the incoming Eighth Graders we leave this advice, "Never ask a senior."

This document has been duly witnessed and signed this thirtieth day of the first month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four by the Senior Class of Benjamin Franklin High School. Executors of this will are Zack, Wallock, Nakrach, Smith, Kirsch, Halwick, Rubin, Wehle, Goodman, and Baun.

Dear Uncle Jack:

We have been friends for a long time now and I hope we can continue being friends for a long time to come. You're a great guy and I will never forget you. Be good to Sue, she's a great little gal. Don't forget to invite me to the wedding. Loads of love, luck & success in anything you attempt. You deserve the best

Love
Mae

Best of luck to a swell kid who I've enjoyed being with in shop + business. We had a lot of fun flapping money + knew things + always last May your future years be just as you want them.
